

GSCP2P National Delegates 2025 – 2027

Tina Barber

Serving from Guilford County

Tina RB “Dakota” Barber grew up in Colfax, North Carolina and currently resides in Gibsonville, North Carolina with her husband and two children. She holds a Bachelor of Arts in Education from Western Carolina University and a Master of Music from The University of North Carolina at Greensboro. She is currently the music director and logic instructor at Piedmont Classical High School, a position that she has held since April 2024. Prior to that she was the band director at Eastern Guilford Middle School for 18 years and music teacher in The Public Schools of Robeson County for three years. She continues to perform with community bands in the area, having performed with the Greensboro Concert Band, Company Shops Band and the Cape Fear Community Band. She became a Brownie when she started first grade and graduated high school as a Girl Scout Senior. She moved into the world of adult Girl Scouting by working as a camp counselor, day camp director, and program provider throughout college. She became an Adult Learning Facilitator in 1998 and trains mostly outdoor skills so leaders can take their girls on a camping experience from troop camping to backpacking. When her daughter became a Daisy in 2017, she became a leader and service unit volunteer. She holds several past and present committee positions including training efficacy committee, training rewrite committee, Outdoor Adventure Training event committee co-chair, property committee, campership committee, and service unit event chair. She has 46 years of membership and 31 years of volunteer experience within two councils- Tarheel Triad/Peaks to Piedmont and Central Texas. She continues to volunteer as an outdoor facilitator holding certifications and training in boating, archery, low ROPES, Adventure Park, and climbing wall.

Mia Currie

Serving from Alamance County

Mia T. Currie is a sophomore at Walter Williams High School, where she is an International Baccalaureate student. She is an active member of Amnesty International, Key Club, Student Council, Women in Social Science, Operation Do Something, and Beta Club. As a Girl Scout Junior, Mia earned the Bronze Award by creating comfort pillows for local nursing homes. At the Cadette level, she achieved the Silver Award by becoming certified in pet CPR and creating bilingual brochures in English and Spanish. These brochures are available at Burlington Animal Hospital, and a YouTube video she created can be viewed at the following link: <https://youtu.be/gqTA1j1Bmaw?si=tJO9C9MMg19t2hjt>. She is currently working toward completing her Gold Award. Mia is honored to represent Carolina Peaks to Piedmont at the state and national levels and is excited about this incredible opportunity.

Patricia "Trish" Johnson

Serving from Catawba Count

Born and raised in Gastonia, NC, has been actively involved in Girl Scouts since her youth, participating as a Brownie, Junior, and Cadet in the 1960s and 1970s. She currently serves as the Board Chair of Girl Scouts Carolinas Peaks to Piedmont (GSCP2P) and has been a board member since 2018. Dr. Johnson retired as Associate Superintendent of Caldwell County Schools after 39 years of service in 2018. She remains active in her community, serving in leadership roles at her church, in Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, and on various boards, including the Catawba Valley Community College Board of Trustees. Dr. Johnson holds degrees from Elizabeth City State University, South Carolina State University, and Appalachian State University. She is married and has two adult sons.

Amber Mellon

Serving from Watauga County

Amber Mellon is a 15-year Girl Scout leader from Boone, North Carolina. She has led troops at every level, from Daisies to Ambassadors, where three girls have earned their Gold Award and numerous others have achieved their Bronze and Silver Awards. Amber has served her service unit in various roles, including Fall Product Chair and Adult Recognitions Chair, and she currently serves the council as a co-mentor for the Girl Advisory Board. She is passionate about keeping older girls engaged in Girl Scouts and about recognizing the contributions of adult volunteers. Outside of Girl Scouts, Amber is a wife and mother of three. She is a Senior Lecturer of Mathematics at Appalachian State University, where she also coordinates the regional math contest. Additionally, she volunteers as the MathCounts coach for Hardin Park School. In her free time, Amber enjoys caring for her many animals, working out, exploring amateur photography, and taking long walks with her dog.

Angela Nix

Serving from Iredell County

Angela Nix is 15 years old and has been a dedicated Girl Scout for over 10 years. Throughout her time in the program, she has earned recognition as a Top Cookie Seller and currently serves as a member of the Girl Advisory Board (GAB). Angela also represents Girl Scouts as a Media Girl, using her voice to inspire and inform others about the Girl Scout experience.

Charlie Smith

Serving from Watauga County

Charlie Smith has been a dedicated Girl Scout for nearly 10 years. She has participated in Battle of the Books, contributing to her team's success in earning both first and third place finishes. For the past two years, Charlie has also been actively involved in MathCounts and Mock Trial, demonstrating her commitment to academic and extracurricular excellence. Charlie manages ADHD, which has shaped her preference for organized and tidy environments. While she doesn't strive for absolute perfection, she thrives in spaces that are neat enough to support her focus and productivity.

Alternates - National Delegates 2025-2027

Danielle Evans

Serving from Guilford County

Danielle Evans is a second-year Daisy Girl Scout leader whose journey in Girl Scouts began in the 1990s as a Brownie. She has fond memories of camping, cookie booths, and trips to Savannah. Although she participated through the Cadette level, she always knew she would return to Girl Scouts. Before her daughter entered kindergarten, she took the initiative to start a Daisy troop, and for the past two years, she has enjoyed leading and inspiring young Girl Scouts. Danielle looks forward to serving as an alternate national delegate.

Deon Gaither

Serving from Davidson County

Mrs. Deon Gaither is a dedicated Girl Scout volunteer and mother to a Daisy. She has been involved with Girl Scouts for nearly four years, supporting young girls as they develop confidence, leadership, and new skills. A Certified Public Accountant (CPA), Deon has extensive experience in accounting for billion-dollar investment portfolios and has worked in the healthcare and insurance industries. She is passionate about financial education and community involvement, using her expertise to make a meaningful impact.

Elizabeth Stonich

Serving from Forsyth County

Elizabeth (Liz) Stonich grew up in Chicago and later lived in the USVI. After moving to North Carolina, she initially planned to attend college and start a family. During her first year of college, she was blessed with her only child, who introduced her to the world of Girl Scouts. Elizabeth earned a BS in Business Administration and served a 3-year term on the Salem College Alumni Board. She has volunteered with various organizations, including Summit School and Girl Scouts. Currently, she serves as the Product (Fall & Cookie) Specialist for SU 141, is a Troop Leader for Juniors/Cadettes, and has just completed her term as an SU Delegate.
